

GREEN POLICY

Bearingram uses low environmental impact means to help improve the environment and people's lives, promoting sustainable development from an economic-financial, social and environmental point of view.

Bearingram promotes a company policy in favor of the protection and respect for the environment and a careful use of natural resources: the company is committed every day to improving the procedures and technologies used in order to reduce the impact on environment and on the territory.

Bearingram S.r.l. puts its commitment to environmental matters on a par with all other managerial and organizational needs: periodically and systematically they are put into acknowledges the environmental objectives and related targets and the progress of these programs is continuously monitored, making, if necessary, the appropriate corrective actions.

Bearingram S.r.l. is committed to protecting and protecting the environment by reducing all forms of environmental impact, optimizing the use of energy resources, avoiding waste, and using the best available technologies, focusing on alternative forms of energy with a low environmental impact.

Bearingram S.r.l. it also aims to promote the quality of human life, improve the conditions of the environment and the prudent and rational use of natural resources.

Bearingram S.r.l.

Via Nastrucci, 23 | 29122 Piacenza (PC)
info@bearingram.com